

Free

we make Camden

Uniting and celebrating Camden's communities event

Thursday 4 April, 6 to 8pm

Food from 5.30pm

Greenwood Centre, 37 Greenwood Place, NW5 1LB

Come along to a special free evening to celebrate Camden's diversity and the people who make the place.

Amies Freedom Choir

Pan Intercultural Arts presents young women from diverse and difficult backgrounds performing songs from each others' cultures and languages

Fortune

Pan Intercultural Arts presents spoken word from Camden young people, many of whom have arrived recently from very difficult situations around the world

Kunle Olulode

Director of Voice4Change and former Convener of Camden Black Workers Group

Faye Hamilton

Local resident, singer, comedian and actor

The Phoenix Collective

Irish music from the original West End cast members of Once the Musical

Banglar Shur

Local Bangladeshi musicians and vocal act

Small Green Shoots

Performance from local youth-led art charity

And more to be announced

Book free tickets and find out more: camden.gov.uk/wemakecamden

Camden stands together

Share your story

#WeMakeCamden f lbcamden

camden.gov.uk/wemakecamden